Veneur Club Sport

Bentley refreshes the Veneur collection of fine watches for 2015 with sporty aesthetics and high precision chronograph quartz movement. The new model Veneur Club Sport features classic tri-compax dial face with 3 sub dials encircled in beveled spiral metal rings, and measures times to the accuracy of 1/10th of a second, windowed date aperture is placed at 4 o'clock position and continuous second display is situated at 6 o'clock position, and with lumed hour and minute hands the new model improves time reading in inclement conditions.

Veneur Club Sport models come equipped with fold over clasp with safety and screw down crown, and are water resistant to a depth of 100 meters perfectly suited for light aqua sport activities. On initial launch the collection is offered in a number of colorway choices including stainless steel, black, blue, rose gold and gold. The caseback is decorated in curvy line patterns and a two tone ceramic 'B' logo sits at the center of the stainless steel backplate, the new collection is expected to hit Bentley retailers in March with a starting price marked at $950 USD.

About Bentley – Bentley the watch brand was established in 1948 in La Chaux-de-Fonds, Switzerland. The town is steeped in the history of Swiss horology, and known to the world as the cradle of modern watchmaking. In the early 90s, Bentley evolved to be the Bentley Luxury Group, and expanded its product portfolio to include fashion and lifestyle accessories as well as leather goods while embracing its new brand motto, "BE IN CONTROL".

The Bentley watch division is principally engaged in the design and making of wristwatches and lifestyle accessories with its collection of fine timepieces being the flagship products that are managed by the group. Following traditional watchmaking techniques and innovations in design, Bentley watches are recognized by enthusiasts as a contemporary illustration of precision craft with each luxurious timepiece achieving a fine balance between tradition and modernity.
