Bourbon Date Display 42mm

Bentley welcomes a new model with large date display into the 2014 Bourbon collection of fine watches. Originally launched in 1996, the Bourbon collection was inspired by royal court cultures, and has since exuded a sense of elegance and intricacy through its precise construction, premium details and authentic craftsmanship.

The new timepiece is conceived with an extra large date display window at 12 O'clock position, the concise dial design centers around a stylize 'B' logo with corrugated fan blade curves spiraling out towards the diamond encrusted hour markers. Sapphire glass domes over the three-hander dial face in black or white, and fitted in the brushed stainless steel bezel with tapered edge. The genuine leather straps are offered in two color options, including black, brown and a special perforated option.
