Solstice Chronograph Tri-Compax

Following the successful relaunch of the Solstice collection in an entirely new case design at Baselworld 2013, Bentley adds a new chronograph model into the 2014 Solstice Collection. The cushion shaped Solstice model reflects Bentley designer's artful interpretation of light and darkness, the original design concept was inspired by winter solstice occurring over mountain peak Monte Rosa, Switzerland.

The new model features chronograph function, topped with a simple tri-compax dial face, high intensity luminosity elements are utilized on the tips of hour and minute hands providing absolute legibility in dark environments. The new Solstice chronograph features stainless steel case, with a choice of black and white dial face, the case is finished in additional colors including PVD rose gold and IP black. Stainless steel bracelet comes as standards on all models, and for an even sportier look options for genuine leather straps are available in dark brown, light brown and black.
